

The Compassionate Community
2 Corinthians 2:12-3:3

Christians are members of a compassionate community.

When you die to self, you shift from serving self to serving others.

Your sacrifices to follow Christ are pleasing to God.

Your ministry of service points others to Jesus' sacrifice.

Your ministry of service shows the authenticity of your faith.